EDUCATION PATRON SERVICES MANAGER

POSTING DATE: May 8, 2023
STATUS: Full-Time
REPORTS TO: Education Program Manager
POSITION AVAILABLE: June 1, 2023

ABOUT ROUND HOUSE THEATRE
Round House is a theatre for everyone. We enrich our community through bold, outstanding theatrical and educational experiences that inspire empathy and demand conversation. We work toward equity, diversity, and inclusion across all aspects of our organization; we highlight voices that have been historically misrepresented and under-resourced by the theatre field; and we ensure that our work is accessible to patrons of all ages, cultural backgrounds, economic groups, and physical ability. Our organizational values include a commitment to be an anti-racist, anti-sexist organization. We actively encourage people from a variety of backgrounds with different experiences, skills, and stories to join us and develop our working practice.

Round House Theatre is one of the “Big Six” professional theatres in the Washington, DC area, with “a renovation matching [its] upgrade in recent years as a purveyor of dramatic art” (Peter Marks, The Washington Post). A nonprofit professional LORT theatre with an annual budget of more than $9 million located in suburban Washington, DC (Bethesda and Silver Spring, MD), Round House produces a six-show season of new plays, modern classics, and musicals for more than 50,000 patrons each year at its newly renovated 350-seat theatre in Bethesda in addition to providing educational programs for more than 5,000 students of all ages at its six-classroom Education Center in Silver Spring, in schools throughout Montgomery County, and at the Bethesda theatre.

JOB DESCRIPTION
The Education Patrons Services Manager provides front-line engagement with education patrons and serves as an ambassador for our programming. Responsibilities include serving as the primary receptionist during programming, handling student registrations and reporting, serving as the department’s Tessitura administrator, maintaining Education calendars, managing phone and email correspondence, coordinating marketing initiatives, booking Student Matinee performances and providing daily administrative support for the Education Department. Additional duties include representing the Education department in cross-departmental workgroups. Teaching is not a primary responsibility, but the ability to teach classes is a plus.

The position will be based primarily at the Education Center in Silver Spring but may be required to work at the Theatre in Bethesda or at offsite programs. Some remote work possible between September and May. This position is expected to work weekends when Education programming is in session, as well as some evening hours for theatre-related events. Candidates should have experience with Apple/Mac systems, Microsoft Office, and ticketing/sales software. An extroverted and engaging personality with excellent phone and interpersonal skills and high attention to detail are required of a successful candidate.
