Round House Theatre seeks a strategic thinker, marketer and leader to serve as Director of Marketing and Communications. The Director will create, develop, and execute both short-term and long-term strategic marketing plans to develop and grow an annual audience of more than 40,000, and ticket revenue in excess of $1.5 million. Reporting to the Managing Director, the Director of Marketing and Communications serves as a key member of the theatre’s senior management team. This is a great opportunity for a talented and ambitious leader advancing in the field of arts marketing.

Round House Theatre, dubbed “the current meteor in DC theatre,” by Peter Marks of The Washington Post is one of the “Big Six” professional theatres in the Washington, DC area. A nonprofit professional LORT theatre with an annual budget of more than $5.5 million located in suburban Washington, DC (Bethesda and Silver Spring, MD), Round House Theatre is a home for outstanding ensemble acting and lifelong learning that seeks to captivate audiences with stories that inspire compassion, evoke emotions, and demand conversation. With a growing subscriber base, and having just completed the best-attended and highest-grossing seasons in its history, Round House produces a six-show season of new plays, modern classics, and musicals for 40,000 patrons each year at its 395-seat theatre in Bethesda in addition to providing educational programs for 4,000 students of all ages at its six-classroom Education Center in Silver Spring, in schools throughout Montgomery County, and at the Bethesda theatre. In the near future, Round House is preparing to carry out new initiatives, including an ambitious capital campaign, renovations, and off-site programming.
