

APPRENTICESHIPS

Round House offers apprenticeships designed to offer on-the-job training for committed, highly motivated individuals who are ready to embark upon a professional theatre career. Apprentices are directly exposed to the theatre's daily operations and given the opportunity to learn alongside an accomplished company of artists, teachers, and administrators. Apprentices are encouraged to gain both practical experience and professional contacts through the program. In addition to their specialized training, apprentices gain additional insight into workings of a professional regional theatre through regularly scheduled seminars led by guest speakers and members of the Theatre's senior staff.

Apprenticeships are awarded for a season (August-June) or for the summer (Only in Education). The season-long apprenticeships generally requires a 10-month commitment. Apprenticeships generally begin in early August and conclude in late June. Apprentices receive an hourly wage of $14 and are expected to work 25 to 40 hours a week, based on the needs/schedule of their department. Apprentices work weekends and evenings as required. Additional part-time employment in other departments may be available at the theatre.

In the 21-22 Season, Round House will be offering Apprenticeships in Artistic/Literary Management, Education, and Stage Management. We actively encourage people from a variety of backgrounds with different experiences, skills and stories to join us and influence and develop our working practice. The apprenticeship program is a training program, and significant prior experience is not required.

ABOUT ROUND HOUSE THEATRE

Round House is a theatre for everyone. We enrich our community through bold, outstanding theatrical and educational experiences that inspire empathy and demand conversation. We work toward equity, diversity, and inclusion across all aspects of our organization; we highlight voices that have been historically misrepresented and under-resourced by the theatre field; and we ensure that our work is accessible to patrons of all ages, cultural backgrounds, economic groups, and physical ability. Our organizational values include a commitment to be an anti-racist, anti-sexist organization.

Artistic Apprentice

The Artistic Apprenticeship provides on-the-job training for an early career artist and administrator. Through daily interaction and direct mentorship by the Artistic Director and Associate Artists, the position provides a chance to see directors, artists, administrators, and educators at work. The Apprentice will serve as an assistant director on 2-3 shows and participate in planning the upcoming season. Other responsibilities include: reading play submissions, writing support materials, assisting with casting, leading post show discussions, and assisting in the day-to-day needs of the Artistic Department. Applicants should be detail oriented and have excellent interpersonal and written communication skills. This is a season-long apprenticeship. To apply, submit a cover letter and resume to the Round House Theatre Education Department at Education@RoundHouseTheatre.org

Education Apprentice

The Education Apprenticeship provides on-the-job training for an early career educator and administrator and provides an opportunity to learn the inner workings of a multi-faceted education program at an Equity Theatre. Through daily interaction and direct mentorship by the Education staff, the position provides a chance to see administrators, educators, and artists at work. The Apprentice serves as a teaching assistant/faculty for RHT education programs and will participate in curriculum and program development. Other responsibilities include: providing day-to-day administrative support, working on long term projects, and assisting with key outreach experiences. Applicants should have the ability to handle multiple tasks and projects, work collaboratively, demonstrate professionalism and be a skilled communicator. Experience working with children or students of any age preferred. This is a season-long apprenticeship. To apply, submit a cover letter and resume to the Round House Theatre Education Department at Education@RoundHouseTheatre.org

Stage Management Apprentice

The Stage Management Apprentice will work with the Production Manager, Equity Stage Manager, and Production Assistant in order to gain an appreciation for and an understanding of the various production and union responsibilities associated with a non-profit Equity Theatre. The apprentice will build rehearsal management skills through serving as a rehearsal assistant on a minimum of 5 Round House productions during the regular season, as well as serving on run crew for 2 shows. The apprentice will also gain general production and administrative experience by working in various departments within production. Applicants should have the ability to handle multiple tasks and projects, demonstrate professionalism and attention to detail, and have an interest in applying those skills to the field of theatre production. This is a season-long apprenticeship. To apply, submit a cover letter and resume to the Round House Theatre Education Department at Education@RoundHouseTheatre.org
