

Summer Theatre Education Internships – Teaching:

Round House Theatre Education seeks college-level Interns to work in our Summer camps for grades K-12. Ideal candidates are proactive, interested in Arts Education, enjoy students, and are team players. Internships are for 8-hour shifts between 7am-6pm, Monday through Friday, June 18 through August 31. As interns, students will gain experience in teaching Theatre, while working alongside professional teaching artists in a multi-arts environment. A travel stipend is provided. No housing is provided. Interested applicants should submit a completed Summer Intern Application. Receipt of application will be confirmed by email – no phone calls please.

Interviews and hiring begin immediately. Last day to apply: May 1, 2018. Round House Theatre is an equal employment opportunity; motivated persons from all backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

Summer Theatre Education Internships – Administration:

Round House Theatre Education seeks college-level Interns to work in our Summer camps for grades K-12. Ideal candidates are proactive, enjoy students, communicate well, are strong team players, and are interested in how administration supports the efforts of Arts Education.

Internships are for 8-hour shifts between 7:30am-6pm, Monday through Friday, June 18 through August 31. As Interns, students will gain administrative experience in a professional theatre setting with a large education program. A travel stipend is provided. No housing is provided. Interested applicants should submit a completed Intern Application. Receipt of application will be confirmed by email – no phone calls please.

Interviews and hiring begin immediately. Last day to apply: May 1, 2018. Round House Theatre is an equal employment opportunity; motivated persons from all backgrounds are encouraged to apply.